

The monitor _____ (Name/signature) has explained appropriate information verbally or written about the following medications:

Medicine:	Use:	Dosage:	Danger:	Date:	Signature
†Amoxicillin
†Trimethoprim/ Sulfamethoxazole
†Nalidixic Acid
†Erythromycin
Azitromycine
†Cloroquine
†Primaquine
†Acetaminophen or Paracetamol
†Piperazina
†Mebendazole
†Ferrous Sulfate
†Salbutamol
†Prednisone
†Litrosol/Oral Rehydration Solution (ORS)
†Vitamin A
†Nystatin
Aspirin
Ibuprofen
†Adrenaline
Ipecac
Metronidazole
Ofloxacin
Diflucan
Vitamins, multiple
Prenatal
Ped / Flouride / Iron-Note specific dosage_____
Benzoate Bencill of 25%(scabicide)
Triple Therapy Cream:Inflammation/Fungus/Bacte
Cream Anti-Candidiasis/Vaginal/Skin
Cream Anti-Fungus_____
Cream Anti-Inflammatory_____
Dome Bandages
Ergonovine
Vitamin K
Antiacids
Acid production Blocker (Ej:Ranitidine)_____
Triple Therapy Against Gastritis/Ulcers _____
Anti-inflammatories_____
Anti-spasmodic Muscular
Antibacterial Pomade_____
Ophthamologic Pomade. tetracycline
*High Blood Pressure:_____
*Epilepsy:_____
*Diabetes:_____
*Asthma:_____
Others: Fill another sheet if necessary_____

*Hypertension, diabetes, epilepsy, and asthma are handled by the doctor, with the monitor watching.
 †Medicines of AIN-C II. The majority should use tablets or capsules, including with infants, to protect against contamination of liquids, confusion of dosages, and to economize material resources.